Team Chamos Win the 23rd Annual Chama Valley Open

Good times were had by all at the 23rd Annual Chama Valley Open Golf Tournament. Twenty six teams of four gathered at the Pagosa Springs Golf Club, but the team taking home top honors for the day was team Chamos.

The foursome made up of Eddie Duran, Timmy Gallegos, Brian Maestas, and Josh Duran claimed their victory with a score of 56 which was a two stroke margin over their nearest competitor. Each member of the team was awarded $100 to be spent in the Pro Shop at the golf course.

Finishing in a three way tie for second place, with a score of 58, were last year's tournament champions Fina's Diner, Montano & Sons, and CSM Construction.

In addition to the eighteen-hole tournament, there were a number of individual achievements that were recognized during the day which included:

- Longest Putt: Thomas Royston
- Longest Drive: Vicente Mercure
- Closest to the Pin: Justin Cordova
- Straightest Drive: Gabriel Mercure

There was also a set of women's golf clubs up for raffle for all registered female golfers who participated in the tournament. This was won by Brandi Manzanares.

NORA Electric Cooperative would like to thank all that were involved in the 23rd Annual Chama Valley Open Golf Tournament beginning with the Pagosa Springs Golf Club. Their ability to accommodate this year's event allowed us to expand the number of teams from eighteen, in years past, to twenty six and the capacity for up to thirty teams. The hospitality and amenities provided were greatly appreciated.

NORA would also like to thank the Hillside Inn in Pagosa Springs for reserving a block of rooms for participants in the tournament.

Of course, NORA is most grateful for all the participating golfers, support staff, and sponsors that have made this into such a successful perennial event. Their ongoing commitment, hard work, and generous financial support year after year has had a profound positive impact on the youth of our community in multiple ways.

All tournament proceeds will be used to fund scholarships to local graduating seniors as well as NORA's Annual Golf Camp provided to middle and high school students residing within NORA's service area. Earlier this year, NORA was able to award two Golf Tournament Scholarships of $1,000.00 each to Tomás Atencio and Cipriana Garcia who graduated from Escalante High School in May.
